Terms and Conditions for use of Canby Public Library Community Room

The Canby Public Library will be referred to as “CPL” and the person designated as the “Responsible Person” will be referred to as the “USER”.

1. User proposed changes to the agreed upon time and day must be negotiated a minimum of five working days before event. If you must cancel the event, CPL expects the “Responsible Person” and USER to inform the Canby Public Library contact staff as soon as possible.
2. USER agrees to be responsible for the conduct of event participants in and about the building and for any and all damages beyond ordinary wear caused by or related to USER’s occupancy. All groups, clubs, entities or individuals using a library meeting room must comply with these rules and with the Behavior Rules Governing the Use of the Canby Public Library. Failure to comply with the rules may lead to immediate termination of the meeting, exclusion of individuals from library premises pursuant to the rules, and/or loss of future meeting room use privileges.
3. USER is responsible for ensuring that attendance at its meetings does not exceed the maximum occupancy for the meeting or conference room as set by the Fire Marshal and as agreed upon in your application.
4. No admission fees may be charged or solicited. The use of the room for fundraising is prohibited. No solicitation of money or other property may be collected for the user from the audience. No promotions or commercial sales of services, products, merchandise, materials or other items are allowed. The Constitution of Oregon, Article XI, Section 9, precludes a government agency like the library from providing financial aid to private enterprise absent a clear public purpose.
5. Sales of services, products, merchandise, materials or items or solicitations for donations authorized pursuant to a library-sponsored program or event, or on behalf of the Friends of the Library or the Library Foundation, are permitted.
6. Commercial use of library meeting rooms is generally not permitted. However, a commercial entity or professional practitioner may use a library meeting room to provide an educational program open to the general public related to his or her field of expertise. In such a case, an educational opportunity offered by an expert provides benefit to the public. During such a program, no attempt may be made to sell, at the time of the program or in the future, a specific product or service offered by the entity or practitioner or any other commercial interest. Therefore, the individual or entity offering the program may not hand out business cards or brochures promoting any business, product or service and may not solicit personal information (names, addresses, phone numbers, etc.) from the program participants, either as part of a pre-registration process or during the program itself.
7. The library is not responsible for theft of or damage to property brought into a library meeting room.
8. No alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, smoking, vaping, use of tobacco, e-cigarettes or cannabis are allowed in the library or grounds at any time. Failure of anyone within the group to comply will cause an immediate request to leave the facility and grounds.
9. Firearms are not permitted anywhere in the property unless authorized by law. Further, the leaving or not securing dangerous weapons or other hazards (jeopardizing the safety of patrons or employees) will result in an immediate request to leave the facility and grounds.
10. USER is responsible for returning the building to a clean and orderly condition after use. Cleanup includes wiping table surfaces, removing debris and placing garbage in appropriate containers. Folding tables returned into storable configuration and stacking chairs onto carts.

11. Open flames (including candles and incense) are prohibited.
12. Music or other audio must be limited in volume as to not disturb other library users.
13. Tables and chairs cannot be removed from the building.
14. Animals are not permitted except service animals or part of a pre-established program (i.e. Police canine program).
15. Facility users will not attempt to adjust thermostats.
16. Equipment, supplies or other products belonging to user groups cannot be stored in the facility.
17. Existing wall decorations may not be removed.
18. Posters, charts, banners or easel sheets will be attached only on tack boards installed on the facility walls. No tape, tacks, stickpins, or fasteners of any kind will be applied to or stuck into other surfaces in rooms, doors, or the building lobby. Only with prior approval may groups post signs in library approved locations.
19. USER is responsible for any damage to the building or building equipment caused by or related to his/her use of the facilities. USER agrees to report damages to the Canby Public Library in writing as soon as practicable.

Indemnity Agreement

The USER agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Canby Public Library/City of Canby, its Employees, and Agents from:

- A. All liability, damage, loss, cost, or expense, including but not limited to attorney's fees, that the indemnities may sustain or incur on account of any damage to or destruction of any property that the Canby Public Library/City of Canby may own or have responsibility for.
- B. All liability, damage, loss, cost, or expense, including but not limited to attorney's fees, on account of any damage to or destruction of any property belonging to any person, firm or corporation.
- C. All liability, damage, loss, cost, or expense, including but not limited to attorney's fees, on account of any damage resulting from injury to or death of any person or persons resulting from or in any way connected with the use by the USER or their invitees of the Canby Public Library Community Rooms or the greater Canby Public Library/City of Canby facilities or grounds.
- D. It is further understood that the USER shall, at the option of the City of Canby, defend with appropriate legal counsel and shall further bear all costs and expenses, including expenses of counsel, in defense of any suit arising hereunder.
