

Every Hero Has A Story

The Canby Public Library's summer reading program is gaining momentum under the motto Every Hero Has A Story. Please tell us about a professional person who lives in our community and who has done something extraordinary. This person could be a teacher, doctor, councilor, business owner, etc.

Hero nomination deadline is July 31, 2015.

Hero nomination form

First and last name of your hero

Phone number

Describe why this person is a hero to you. Use only the space provided in the yellow box.

Your first and last name

Phone number

All heroes will be invited to our end of summer reading party on Aug. 12 at 3 pm in Wait Park where we will announce all nominations. Every hero's name will be posted in the library.

Canby Public Library

Member of the Library Information Network of Clackamas County